

Aidan Brooks McCaa

August 6, 2004 - February 27, 2026

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Aidan Brooks McCaa, 21, passed away Friday, February 27, 2026, in Southaven, MS. Though his time on this earth was far too short, Aidan's life was filled with love, purpose, and a light that touched everyone who knew him.

A visitation will be held Thursday, March 5, 2025, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., with a celebration of life following at 3:00 p.m., all at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. Pastor Mike Hale will officiate. Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of arrangements.

Aidan was tenderhearted, thoughtful, and deeply loving—a true “old soul” with a gentle spirit and a beautiful smile that could brighten even the darkest room. With his long lashes, green eyes, and curly hair, he had a presence that drew people in, but it was his kindness and sincerity that made him unforgettable.

He was known for being overly thoughtful, always opening doors, lending a hand, and putting others before himself. Aidan was truly people-oriented and had an endearing way of making everyone feel valued and seen. To know Aidan was to love him—words spoken by a close friend and echoed by countless others.

Cooking was Aidan's greatest passion. A talented and dedicated chef, he took immense pride in his craft, spending hours watching cooking shows, perfecting gourmet dishes, and sharing his creations with those he loved. His joy in the kitchen reflected his heart: generous, creative, and full of love.

Aidan was baptized in his youth and carried a deep love for Jesus throughout his life.

Aidan was a devoted son and a loving brother, serving as a mentor and confidant to Hunter and Jackson. He never hesitated to encourage them, guide them, or simply be there when they needed him.

His mother describes Aidan as her joy, her greatest blessing, and her heart. Their bond was unbreakable, and his loss leaves a space that cannot be filled, yet his love will forever remain.

He was a young man of strong character, quiet strength, and unwavering compassion. He loved deeply, lived sincerely, and left this world better than he found it.

Aidan is survived by his mother, Erica McCaa of Southaven, MS; brothers, Hunter and Jackson McCaa of Southaven; grandparents, Debbie and Bill Vopel of Arlington, TN, and Clifford and Cissy McCaa of Progresso, MX; great-grandmother, Martha Vopel of Memphis, TN; aunts, Denise Wilkerson of Memphis, Ramona Robinson of Progresso, and Terri and Vann Raley of Collierville, TN; cousins, Kaylon Wilkerson, Jonah Wilkerson, Brittany Raley, Blake and Lindsay Raley, Brett and Brittany Raley, and Neil Robinson; and girlfriend, Emma Sarwar.

Though Aidan's earthly journey has ended, his legacy of love, faith, kindness, and joy will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew him. His memory will forever be a blessing.

Expressions of condolences may be shared on Mr. Aidan Brooks McCaa's Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhmesh.com.

“ Aidan was a dear friend to me, even though I only knew him for a short time. His personality was magnetic. Talking with him & listening to his stories became my favorite part of the day. His laugh and smile brought me so much joy. He loved Jesus and spoke about God’s work in his life often. He was so intelligent, especially emotionally. He quickly became one of my favorite people in my life and I will miss him immensely. I find peace in knowing that I will see him again in heaven. My deepest condolences to his family.

“ When I think of Aiden all I think about was my first youth trip. He was there always saying crazy little jokes making us laugh. I remember coming home telling my mom I made a friend at camp and he went to our church and had curly hair. Ever since then he would always say hey if he saw me. He was a good friend to anyone who he knew! With thoughts and prayers sent to Ms. Erica and Little Jackjack☐ - Easton Dees

“ Aidan was such a great friend to me in the short time I knew him. He had a beautiful soul and a kind heart. He loved Jesus and His favorite book of the bible was Isaiah (we talked about that often). He had a smile that could light up a room, which was accompanied by an infectious laugh. I'll miss our jokes, but I'll forever cherish the conversations we had together and the memories made. My dear friend, until we meet again. Much love and my condolences to the McCaa family during this time. - Ny'Asia

“ Aidan has been a client of mine for probably the past ten years. I absolutely loved cutting his hair. He trusted me because he knew I would never cut all his beautiful curls off. I always look forward to him coming in because we had some amazing conversations. I'm definitely going to miss him.
My heart goes out to his family and friends.
