Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Billy Frank Hawkins, affectionately known as “Billy Honey”, 87, passed away Sunday, May 4, 2025, at his home. Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven (626 Star Landing Road East, Southaven, MS 38672) is in charge of arrangements.

Billy Honey was one of a kind—quick with a comeback, sharper than a tack, and always ready to make you laugh when you least expected it. With a twinkle in his eye and a sarcastic grin, he brought laughter wherever he went. He was the kind of man who could tease you and make you feel loved all in the same sentence.

He had a true zest for life. He was never happier than when he was on two wheels, the wind in his face and the open road ahead. Motorcycles weren’t just a hobby—they were a part of who he was. That same spirit of adventure carried him across skies and highways alike, fueled by his love for airplanes, travel, and exploring the world with the love of his life, his wife, Jeffie.

Billy is survived by his beloved wife, of 47 years, Jeffie Lynn Hawkins of Southaven, MS; his children, Randy, Jeffery, Billy, Lisa, Larry and Brandie; his fifteen grandchildren; and his eleven great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Leona; his parents, Odell and Leona Hawkins; and his three siblings.

To know Billy was to love him—and to be endlessly entertained. He leaves behind a world that's a little less funny, a little less bright, but filled with memories and stories that will make us smile for years to come. Ride on, Billy. We'll see you down the road.

Expressions of condolences may be left on his Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhomes.com. In lieu of flowers, the Hawkins family requests you to pass it on forward and take care of your friends, neighbors, and community.
