November 24, 1940 - June 29, 2023

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Carolyn Worley Holderfield, 82, of Horn Lake, MS, passed away Thursday, June 29, 2023. A visitation will be held Saturday, July 8, 2023, from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven (626 Star Landing Road East, Southaven, MS, 38672). A funeral service will immediately follow at 12:00 p.m., also at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. Reverend Greg Worley will be officiating. Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of arrangements.

Carolyn was born November 24, 1940, in Harrisburg, Arkansas, to the late Dan Ervin and Lucille Kitchens Worley. She was an active Realtor in the community and wonderful baker. Prior to her real estate career, she owned and operated a very successful catering business for 33 years. She is described by her family as being inspirational, strong, loving, and caring. She was a blessing to many people. She, in return, was blessed by blessing others around her. Carolyn was always available for her friends and family, teaching them all many life lessons. She taught others to always treat others better than you would yourself and love first, ask questions later. She instilled all these traits in her family, leaving them with a legacy like no other. With her loving and caring nature, she often became everyone's "Gan Gan". Her sweet spirit and character will be missed by all those that loved and cherished her.

Carolyn is survived by her daughter, Beverly (Richard) Williams of Horn Lake, MS; step daughter, Lisa (Bryan) Andrews Marinez of Portland, OR; step son, Rick (Debra) Hopkins, Sr., of Southaven; two granddaughters, Katherine Elizabeth Rush and Stephanie Danielle (Lorena) Williams; two grandsons, Brian Thomas Holderfield and Richard Charles Williams, Jr.; three great-granddaughters, Addison Wiley, Adrienne Wiley and Lilly Holderfield; two great-grandsons, Colton Wiley and Logan Holderfield; her brother, Gary (Diane) Worley; two sister in laws, Hattie Worley and Paulette Worley; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her son, Thomas Edward Holderfield; her father, Dan Ervin Worley; her mother, Lucille Kitchens Worley; and her two brothers, Gene Worley and Oliver Worley.

Such a great video. I loved looking at the parts of Aunt Carol's life that I didn't know about, yet these memorial pictures all remained consistent in the sweet, beautiful, caring soul she was. She was always one to encourage others to be their best in life. That's probably what I loved so much about her. She never put anyone down, but always found the best part of others, and lifted them up, encouraging them to always be their best.

May you receive the best heaven has to offer you in way of rewards, Aunt Carol, for you of all the people I know, certainly deserve Heaven's best. ❤️

“ I have known this sweet lady for years. We lived across the hall from each other when I lived in Memphis. Carol was loved by many. She would do anything for anyone. She was a great business woman. She will be missed by so many. My prayers are with Beverly, her brother and all the family. I am so sorry I did not get back to see her. I was actually planning on calling her. When I saw this tribute I could not believe it. My heart aches. I will miss her. She was a good friend.

“ It feels like everything should stop when the world loses a kind, loving woman like this. Carolyn was a ray of sunshine and showed so much love to anyone and everyone she met. She would shower you with kindness and radiated confidence of a person with so much wisdom and experience. I am truly lucky to have had Carolyn in my life as she treated like her very own grandchild. Words can't express how much I will miss her. I send so much love to the family missing her now.
