“ I met Curtis at my first job after college, and we were in financial sales. We hit it off and had so much fun, at work and after work too. We stayed in touch all these years. I visited him and he visited here too as I left Memphis 30 years ago. We stayed in touch by phone and later by texting also. Curtis was a fun and loyal friend, and had great values that I'm sure he got from his wonderful parents. He was so proud of his sisters, brother-in-laws, nieces and nephews and of course his parents. He is greatly missed. Johnny Harris , Linden, TN
