“ Deana, you will be missed by all your family. My memory of you was that little girl with such blonde hair. I remember caring you around on my hip. You were my real life baby doll. We all grew up together and was very close. As we grew older we went our separate ways. I remember the last time we visited was at Uncle Buds birthday celebration. I saw the picture of me and you and it brought happy tears because I know you are with our Lord. Fly high my little blonde haired baby doll 🙏
