

Delori "Rene" Dever

October 21, 1959 - March 20, 2026

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Delori "Rene" Dever, beloved daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend, passed away Friday, March 20, 2026. Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of arrangements. A memorial service will be held at a later date in Brownwood, TX.

For 25 years, she was a valued and committed employee at FedEx, where her strong work ethic and reliability earned the respect of colleagues and friends alike.

Outside of her professional life, Rene found joy in artistic expression. She had a deep love for painting, often bringing color and life to canvas in ways that reflected her unique perspective and gentle spirit. Her creativity was not confined indoors—she also had a passion for gardening, spending countless hours tending to her flowers and cultivating a yard that blossomed with care and intention.

Rene will be remembered for her hardworking nature, her artistic soul, and the simple beauty she created in both her art and her garden. She leaves behind memories that will continue to grow, much like the flowers she lovingly nurtured.

Ms. Dever is survived by her mother, Roberta Sullivan of Southaven, MS; her beloved son, Elliot Blake Dever of Memphis, TN; her grandson, Tristan Dever of Saucier, MS; her sister, Andra Allgood of Brownwood, TX; her three nephews, Joshua (Rena) Allgood of Memphis, Dalton (Terra) Allgood of Brownwood, TX, and Trey Manning of Memphis, TN; her niece, Danielle Manning of Brownwood, TX; her uncle Dwayne Allgood of Brownwood TX; numerous cousins; many friends, and extended relatives. She is preceded in death by her father, Billy Allgood.

Expressions of condolences may be shared on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhomes.com.
