

Garrett Avery Gavrock

March 1, 1979 - February 19, 2024

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Garrett Avery Gavrock of Southaven, Mississippi, passed away unexpectedly on Tuesday, February 19, 2024, at the age of 44. He was born on March 1, 1979, in Memphis, Tennessee, to Anita Sparks Gavrock and James Gavrock, Jr. both of Hernando, Mississippi.

Garrett gifted us with his athletic ability throughout his lifetime in multiple sports. He is mostly known for his gift on the football field winning awards at Christian Brother's High School (CBHS). He was an excellent student at CBHS as well as at the University of Mississippi, where he graduated with a degree in Finance. After graduation, he entered the construction field. Through hard work and dedication, he became very successful and was recently promoted as the General Manager at Dyke Industries.

Garrett was both a huge fan of the New York Giant's and Ole Miss football teams. His love of sports and music made it not uncommon for him to be able to recite all kinds of information about different players across different sports and music genres, making him one of the best trivia partners and frustrating person to play against.

Garrett was a very compassionate and loving person, who loved his family very much. He was extremely witty with a laugh that everyone will remember. His greatest pleasure was spending time with family, especially his nieces and nephews and their children. Garrett left this earth too soon leaving behind his mother, Anita Sparks Gavrock; his father, James Gavrock, Jr; his older brother, James (Angela) Gavrock, III; his three nieces, Adrienne (Hayden) Seeley, Alexandria Gavrock, and Abigail Gavrock; his five nephews, Grady Gavrock, George Gavrock, Gabriel Gavrock, Grant Gavrock, and Tony Gavrock; his great niece Valentina Gavrock; his great nephew, Jake Seeley all of Hernando, MS; his four cousins, Mary (Wesley) Corkins of Russellville, AR; Bert (Jessica) Buford of New Orleans, LA, Austin (Ines) Gregg of Seattle, WA, Jennifer Gavrock Sutton of Florida, aunts and uncles, and a host of friends, all who cherish his memory.

Funeral services will be held at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven on Tuesday, February 27th at 1 PM.

Expressions of condolences may be left on Mr. Garrett Avery Gavrock's Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com (<http://www.colemanfuneralhome.com/>)

“ I have sat down to write something on this page it seems a million times. And each time, I leave not being able to express what I truly want to say or having the words to say it.

Losing someone special so unexpectedly is incomprehensible to me. I know you are gone, but it is so hard for me to realize that I will never get to visit with you again in this life, or take a fun beach trip, or watch you dominate the speed game of naming the song and artist in our playlist trivia games, or talk sports with anyone about any sport or team, or just catch up on life and all the accomplishments we each achieved since the last time we saw each other, or watching you show your nieces and nephews how much you love them. With all these wonderful memories going through my head every time your name is mentioned, you can see how difficult it is for me to express losing you into eloquent words. The thing I will remember the most about you is your laugh...you have such a distinct laugh. My heart hurts knowing I will never hear it again.

I don't want to say goodbye. I don't know why God needed you more than we do, but I know for a fact, that you are loved and will be missed by so many people. I know I will always think of you every time a 90's - 2000's song comes on the radio; every time we take a family vacation to the beach; and every time I see your family, especially your Mom and Brother and his amazing family. I love you and hope and pray you have heavenly peace!

“ We met five years ago today. I knew at that very moment that we would be together forever. If you want to make God laugh, tell Him your plans. My heart is forever broken. There are no words to express how much I miss you. But, I know that I’ll see you again one day. Until then, you’ll always be my Rock, and I’ll remain your Chunk.

I will always love you, Garrett.

“ Garrett has been a friend of mine for 26 years now. He was honest, responsible, kind, funny caring, and loyal .He could fix anything, have you laughing even when times were bad and you could always count on him. This is such a tragedy and I was devastated to hear of his passing. It was an honor to be friends with you Garrett. Rest in peace sweet friend.

Love,

“ The word friend is something we all use on a daily basis. For some it holds a much higher meaning. Garrett was not only my little brother but my first real friend. There are too many memories to speak of. Some good and some bad. We always had each others back till the end. Part of me is gone with him and there will be a permanent scar. We can all take a page out of the book of Garrett's life and only hope to be half the man he was. Rest in peace little brother. I look forward to seeing you once again when the time comes. Happy Birthday. Love, Jimmy

“ I was lucky enough to have lived with Garrett at ole miss my first years there. He was like a big bro to me and really taught me a lot and was a loyal real person. Some of my fondest memories were riding with him in that red short bed 98 Z71 and us singing every lyric to any song we both sort of knew. I love you and Will miss you bro. Hope you and Leland are somewhere talking about ole miss football and intensely playing madden. Thanks for being such a great friend and role model to me.

“ I had the honor of playing football with Garrett Gavrock at CBHS during the 1996-97 season. I was a junior outside linebacker and Garrett was a senior inside linebacker.

There were two guys on that team that I really looked up to that set the standard for linebacker play and it was no coincidence that those were our two team captains (Garrett Gavrock and Grant Edwards).

Garrett played both ways and was also our starting tight end.

One thing all of our teammates agree upon was that Garrett was a hell of a competitor. He came to compete...every snap...every down...every play. He never took a play off.

I heard the news today and wished I could have attended the funeral. My heartfelt condolences go out to his family.

Gone too soon!
Rest Easy Brother!

“ I had the privilege of knowing Garrett Gavrock. He was a senior at CBHS when I was a sophomore. After a successful freshman football season, spring practice rolled around and I was set on making a statement for the coaches. As a Middle Llinebacker, I wanted to show I can play with the big boys. And so I did, roughing up on the fullbacks that tried to throw a lead block on me. I even started to puff out my chest, thinking, “I’m the man!”. After all, how will I earn a spot to play if I can’t mix it up. Well, the seniors had enough of my John Wayne BS and decided to run an off tackle play that sent the tight end crashing down on the MLB. The tight end was Garrett Gavrock and when I say he crushed me, that’s even an understatement. He sent me airborne with feet flying in the air. Welcome to the big leagues! Ever since that day, there was a humility I gained and naturally a healthy respect for GG. But the other things I learned about him over the years as a grown man, although one of the toughest and fearless guys I knew, he was also incredibly sweet. I will cherish the memories. Thank you for the life lessons GG. May your soul rest in peace buddy. I love you
