“ Uncle Travis, you will be missed. I always loved seeing you pop up on my Facebook because you remind me so much of my dad. I had to do a double take every time I saw a picture of you. I can only imagine the reunion you guys are having up there. I was mowing out at the river Saturday and 4 birds were gliding super high up in the sky and circling around above me. All I could think was that it was my dad, you, Uncle Jimmy, and Uncle Marvin saying hi. I figured my dad was showing you his river land because I know he was proud of it. The Slaughter Reunions will never be the same without all of you sitting out there cutting up around the fire. Til we meet again. <3 Love, Kassandra and Rosey Pearl

Uncle T.. You're gonna be missed so much!! But I know in my heart ❤️ that aunt Jeanette welcomed you home and that you're at peace and so happy now! You're surrounded with love and loved ones and for that I'm forever grateful 🙏!!

My favorite memory of you is how you used to flirt with aunt Jeanette.. You'd catch her doing the dishes or something with her back turned and you'd pinch her behind! She would jump and yell "Travis!" then giggle n blush.. Of course you'd play innocent 😊 "Whaaaaat?" LOL I'll forever miss those days.. and forever treasure those happy memories!!

His smile and sense of humor is something I will always remember.
Him and Jeanette were like 2nd parents to me growing up. There is peace in knowing that you two are reunited. Forever in our hearts. ❤️*
