Beloved father and grandfather Luis A. Carvajal, 84, passed away on Thursday, May 14, 2026, in Southaven, MS. Luis proudly served in the Army division of the Ecuadorian military, an experience that reflected his commitment to service, structure, and honor. He was respected for his reliability, leadership, kindness and willingness to work hard to provide for those he loved.

A devoted lifelong Catholic, Luis found strength and guidance in his faith. He was a faithful member of Christ the King Church, where his devotion to God remained an important part of his life. His beliefs shaped the way he lived—with humility, perseverance, and compassion for others.

Luis will be remembered as a dedicated worker, a man of faith, and someone
