Marsha Berryhill was a woman whose heart overflowed with generosity and joy. She found deep happiness in helping others—whether through thoughtful gifts, kind words, or quiet acts of kindness. A true giver, Marsha was known to tip generously—always in cash, often leaving behind the change with a smile and a twinkle in her eye.

Marsha had a rare gift for connecting with people. Her warm, personable nature made everyone feel welcome and seen. She had the kind of presence that made you feel instantly comfortable, like you'd known her forever.

She had a deep love for the beauty of the natural world. Her garden was a reflection of her spirit—full of life, color, and care. Flowers flourished under her touch, and so did the hearts of those around her. One of her most endearing daily rituals was feeding the geese in her neighborhood. She had a special call for them, and they would come eagerly, knowing she would always be there with food and affection. They trusted her, as so many people did.

Marsha was also a devoted and loving mother. Her care, her strength, and her unwavering love were the foundation of her family. She nurtured not only her own children but all those who were lucky enough to know her.

Marsha Berryhill gave the world more than she ever asked for in return. She leaves behind a legacy of kindness, warmth, and love that will continue to bloom in the lives of all who knew her.

She will be deeply missed—and always remembered. She is survived by her beloved daughter, Leslie Berryhill of Memphis, TN; her brother, Mike (Tina) Moore of Arkabutla, MS; many friends, and extended family.

Mrs. Berryhill was preceded in death by her husband, Billy Durrell Berryhill, and her son, Billy “Bejay” Michael Berryhill.

Expressions of condolences may be left on her Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhomes.com.
