

Marshall Earl Rixie

May 23, 1944 - December 2, 2025

Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven

Marshall Earl Rixie, 81, passed away Tuesday, December 2, 2025, in Southaven, MS. A visitation will be held Friday, December 5, 2025, from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m., at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. A funeral service will be held Saturday, December 6, 2025, at 12 Noon, also at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. Bro. Matthew Wilbanks, his great nephew, will officiate. Interment will follow at Old Enon Cemetery (498 Old Enon Road Middleton, TN 38052). Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of arrangements.

Earl was a born “Mr. Fix-It” — whether under the hood of a car or tackling any household task, he had a knack for solving problems. He loved cars, old westerns and western books, and could often be found watching Fox News or enjoying telling stories from the past. Raised in the Pentecostal faith, he carried a wealth of practical wisdom and a generous spirit: always ready with spare parts or tools, a helpful idea, or a solution when anyone was in need. He was the kind of man who “knew how to fix it,” and often did — with creativity, patience, and care.

Earl is survived by his children, Kelly Cospers and her husband Chris of Horn Lake, MS, Anthony Rixie and his wife Mandy of Southaven, and Brent Rixie of Holly Springs, MS; grandchildren, Joshua Rixie and his wife Ashley, Ryan Cospers, Blake Rixie, Dallas Rixie, Jacob Cospers, Alana Cospers, and Skyler Rixie; great-grandchildren, Carter Rixie and Jordan Rixie; and his siblings, Sue Flake and her husband Wayne and Glenda Mathis.

He was preceded in death by his loving wife, Judy Rixie; parents, Samuel Grant and Essie Lee Lain Rixie; and his siblings, Reece Rixie, Cloise Rixie, and Thomas Rixie.

In lieu of flowers, please consider making donations in honor of Mr. Marshall Earl Rixie to American Lung Association (<https://www.lung.org/donate>) or American Kidney Fund (<https://www.kidneyfund.org/ways-give>).
