Mary was a loving, spiritual, and resilient woman whose strength and perseverance inspired all who knew her. She had a deep love for reading and anime and was always willing to serve others, even when she had little herself. She instilled in her children the values of hard work, faith, and determination, teaching them that they could accomplish anything they set their minds to.

Known for her impeccable style, Mary was always “dressed to the nines.” She was creative and resourceful, able to turn something out of nothing. She brought light into every room she entered and never failed to offer words of encouragement. Her kindness, faith, and generosity touched countless lives.

Mary is survived by her beloved children, Debra Jones of Minneapolis, MN,
