

Waymon Hunter Chenault

July 29, 1990 - August 1, 2023

Waymon Hunter Chenault, 33, passed away at his home on Tuesday, August 1, 2023, in Southaven, MS. A visitation will be held Saturday, August 5, 2023, from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. A service will immediately follow at 3:00 p.m., also at Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven. Interment will be at Autumn Woods Memorial Park Cemetery. Bro. Landon Anderson will officiate. Coleman Funeral Home of Southaven is in charge of arrangements.

Waymon is described by his family as truly being a selfless person, caring and putting others before himself. He was so generous, helping so many people throughout life, never asking for anything in return. He was even known to give the shirt off his back. Waymon truly had the biggest heart a person could have. His life, although cut short, will be a living legacy to always put others first and to never turn your back on someone.

He was an awesome story teller, embellishing every detail, drawing one in deeper as he told his stories. He was an avid movie lover, especially Marvel movies. He enjoyed reading comics, collecting shoes, and riding his motorcycle. But above all, the biggest place in his heart was reserved for his dog, Coach. Waymon's sweet character will definitely be missed by all those that knew and loved him.

Waymon is survived by his parents, Herbert and Teresa Chenault, of Olive Branch, MS; his brother, Hudson (Rebecca) Chenault, of Memphis, TN; his nephew, Wren Chenault; his paternal grandparents, H.F. (Reitae) Chenault; his maternal grandparents, Robert (Mary Ann) Wigington, of Ellistown, MS; and his beloved dog, Coach.

Online condolences may be left on Waymon's Tribute Wall at www.colemanfuneralhome.com.

Herb and Teresa...I am just learning of all you have been through. I feel so blessed to have known Waymon, more so when he was born and his first few years! Everyone was just crazy about him! Such a beautiful little boy! My heart aches for you and this loss. I will be praying for you all specifically as you navigate. Praying the Lord will lift you and carry you now. All my love. “ My love and sympathy extend to Waymon’s family during this terribly difficult time. As Waymon’s English teacher and as one of his freshman sponsors at SBEC, I smile when I remember the fun we all had. Those were good times, and I am grateful for those memories. I also know that God is Good- all of the time. Much love- Tommie Holbrook

“Waymon, Way Way, Batman,
In just the few short months that God let me be in your life, you made such an impact. From our crazy conversations about how you can't buy from Wal-mart because Target is so much better. To the endless hours you spent on FaceTime with Charleigh and her calling out HHEEEYYY WAAYY WAAYY!! The crazy faces, the laughs and her checking in on Coach. Our Bible hours and how you always had an answer for everything. I'm a better person for you being in my life!! I'll never forget the education you gave me on Rolex and why it was so fabulous, your irrational shoe buying and wondering why any person would need a $300 ink pen, but you did, and you loved it all. Thanks for the countless hours of hearing me tell you why generic is better and it going in one ear and out the other. Your love for your family always warmed my heart because through you I knew what a great mom and dad was. Your love for Hudson was so big it poured out of you, you simply loved being his big brother. Coach was every bit of the meaning man's best friend, and you two made the best pair. We did not see eye to eye on a lot of subjects but we still brought them to the table and had discussions. I will miss you immensely! So Batman, thank you for loving me and my kids, and going above and beyond the Waymon way! Until we see each other again, know you were loved beyond measure!!

Love,

Teri
