Bill Moyer was a larger-than-life character whose presence was as commanding as it was endearing. With a sharp sense of humor that could lighten any room, he was known for his ability to find joy and laughter in the simplest of moments. An exceptional cook, Bill's culinary skills were the stuff of legend, often leaving friends and family eagerly wanting more of his great meals.

Bill had a gift for balancing authority with affection, making him a diligent chore giver.

His strong will and persistence were matched only by his verbose nature, making his stories both entertaining and enlightening, though often lengthy. Bill's faith was the cornerstone of his life; he was a firm believer in Jesus and lived out his evangelistic calling with unwavering dedication.

Bill's passions extended beyond the kitchen and his faith. He was an avid outdoorsman, finding solace and excitement in hunting and shooting. His love for nature was evident in every outdoor adventure he embarked upon. Bold and resilient, Bill embodied perseverance, always pushing through challenges with a steadfast spirit.

In addition to his culinary and evangelistic pursuits, Bill was also a movie buff, enjoying the escape and storytelling that films provided. His multifaceted personality made him a beloved figure to all who knew him, leaving a lasting impact through his humor, faith, and indomitable spirit.

Bill is survived by his fiancé/life partner, Teresa Bills of Southaven, MS; children, Bill (Terri) Moyer of Hernando, MS, Cynthia (Jack) Pepper of Cordova, TN, Jennifer (Joe) Cruz of Spring Branch, TX, and Matthew Kyle (Jessica) Bills of Olive Branch, MS; grandchildren, Micah (Joey) Woodruff, Hannah (Joshua) McClain, Cannon (Karly) Moyer, Dannah "Sweetie" (Derrick) Johnson, Lydia Moyer, Maggie Moyer, Dalton Cruz, Elyssa Cruz, Hardin Bills, Evan Bills, Jocelyn Kaylee Jenkins, and Hunter Bills; great-grandchildren, Halle Woodruff, Ethan McClain, Elliana McClain, Cayden Moyer, Beau Moyer, and Rhett Moyer; sister, Jeannie Biteler; niece and nephew, Dawn (Sean) Smolak and Mark Biteler; and his additional family, Mark Bills and Stacy (Hunter Hatchet) Bills.
